1. When the gold-en sun is melt-ing, In the pur-ple of the night,—
2. We go forth with firm en-deav-or, And a pur-pose ev-er true:—
3. We have all been pledged as broth-ers, In-to this frater ni ty, —

There is pro-mise of the mor-row, That it will be fair and bright,
We must help our ma-ny Broth-ers, In what-ev-er they may do,
And in pre-ferenceto all oth-ers, True to thee w'e'll ev-er be,

And to-day we see the gleam-ing, Of fel-low-ship so high,
Al-though lands and seas di-vide us, Our faith will ne'er die,
And to keep se-cre our one vow, On us you may re-ly,

In the beau-ty of the fu-ture, And our hopes for The-ta Chi.
We'll up-hold the stand-ard al-ways, Of our dear old The-ta Chi.
For we ev-er strive to know how, To be wor- thy The-ta Chi.
